

A real skew matrix in odd dimension is always singular, so J_a gives up one direction. The block field gives up three -- the price of a tangency this problem never asked for.

